

Board of Law Examiners

Kansas Judicial Center, Room 374, 301 S.W. 10th Avenue, Topeka, Kansas 66612

To: Applicants for the Bar Without Written Examination in Kansas

Check to make sure you have the current application packet. Review the application packet, noting all requirements. An incomplete application will be returned by the Board. A completed application must include the required filing fee of $1250.

Kansas requires that your undergraduate and law transcripts be mailed directly to the Board from the college or university. E-transcripts will not be accepted. Request transcripts at the time of submission of your completed application. See Supreme Court Rule 706.

Because you are admitted to practice in another state, you must obtain a history of good standing, a disciplinary authority certificate, and a continuing legal education certificate from each state in which you are admitted. History of good standing certificates are usually issued by the Clerk of the Supreme Court, and the disciplinary authority certificate by the appropriate disciplinary governing board. Certificates of continuing legal education should be obtained from the entity responsible for monitoring compliance in that state. Continuing legal education certificates must include proof of compliance with both fee payments and required hours. History of good standing certificates, disciplinary authority certificates, and continuing legal education certificates will not be accepted by the Board if they are more than 90 days old at the time the application is accepted by the Board.

All applicants for the Kansas Bar are required to submit a completed fingerprint card and the required waivers as a part of the character and fitness investigation. Fingerprint card packets are available through this office. Your application will not be accepted until the completed fingerprint packet is received.

You will be advised in writing at the time your application is accepted if your transcripts are not on file. This will be your only notice.

Board files are confidential and will not be discussed with a third party.

The purpose of the following inquiries is to determine the current fitness of the applicant to practice law. The mere fact of treatment for mental health problems or addictions is not, in itself, a basis on which an applicant is ordinarily denied admission, and the Board of Law Examiners routinely certifies for admission individuals who have demonstrated personal responsibility and maturity in dealing with mental health and addiction issues.

The Board of Law Examiners does, on occasion, deny certification to applicants whose ability to function is impaired in a manner relevant to the practice of law at the time the licensing decision is made, or to applicants who demonstrate a lack of candor by their responses. This is consistent with the public purpose that underlies the licensing responsibilities assigned to bar admission agencies; further, the responsibility for demonstrating qualification to practice law is ordinarily assigned to the applicant.

The Board of Law Examiners does not, by its questions, seek information that is fairly characterized as situational counseling. Examples of situational counseling include stress counseling, domestic counseling, grief counseling, and counseling for eating or sleeping disorders. Generally, the Board of Law Examiners does not view these types of counseling as germane to the issue of whether an applicant is qualified to practice law.
