PERMANENT PARENTING PLAN

_____ This is a permanent parenting plan proposed by _____ (father) (mother) (other).

_____ This is an agreed upon permanent parenting plan approved by the parties.

_____ The court developed this permanent parenting plan:

_____ At the request of either parent (Specify parent) _____.

_____ Because the parent or parents were unable to develop a parenting plan.

NOW on this day _____ day of _____, 20____, the above-referenced matter comes before this court. After consultation with the parties, the court enters the following permanent parenting plan.

Permanent Parenting Plan Defined. Pursuant to 2000 House Substitute for Senate Bill 150 Section 25(b), a “permanent parenting plan ”means an agreement between parents which is incorporated into an order at a final hearing or an order or decree issued at a final hearing without agreement that establishes legal custody, residency, parenting time, and other matters regarding a child custody arrangement in a matter in which a parenting plan may be entered.

The objectives of the parenting plan are to:

- establish a proper allocation of parental rights and responsibilities;
- establish an appropriate working relationship between the parents, such that matters regarding the health, education, and welfare of their child is best determined;
- provide for the child's physical care;
- set forth an appropriate schedule of parenting time;
- maintain the child's emotional stability;
- provide for the child's changing needs as the child grows and matures in a way that minimizes the need for future modifications to the permanent parenting plan;
- minimize the child's exposure to harmful parental conflict;
- encourage the parents, where appropriate, to meet their responsibilities to their minor children through agreements in the permanent parenting plan, rather than by relying on judicial intervention; and
- otherwise protect the best interest of the child.
