

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF _____ COUNTY, KANSAS

- () In the Matter of the Marriage of:
() In the Matter of the Parentage of:

and

Case No. _____

- _____ This is a temporary parenting plan proposed by _____ (Name)
(Father) (Mother) (Other).
_____ This is an agreed upon temporary parenting plan approved by the parties.
_____ This is a permanent parenting plan proposed by _____ (Name)
(Father) (Mother) (Other).
_____ This is an agreed upon permanent parenting plan approved by the parties.
_____ The court developed this permanent parenting plan:
_____ At the request of either parent (Specify parent) _____
_____ Because the parent or parents were unable to develop a parenting plan.
_____ Other (Explain) _____

Now this ____ day of _____, 20____, the above-referenced matter comes before this court. After consultation with the parties, the court enters the following ____ temporary or _____ permanent parenting plan.

Temporary Parenting Plan

Temporary Parenting Plan Defined. 2000 House Substitute for Senate Bill 150 New Section 25(a) defines a temporary parenting plan as an agreement or order issued defining the legal custody, residency and parenting time to be exercised by parents with regard to a child between the time of filing of a matter in which a parenting plan may be entered, and any other provisions regarding the child's care which may be in the best interest of the child, until a final order is issued. Legal custody means the allocation of parenting responsibilities between parents, or any person acting as parent, including decision making rights and responsibilities pertaining to matters of child health, education and welfare.

A parent seeking a temporary order in which matters of child custody, residency or parenting time are included shall file a proposed temporary parenting plan contemporaneous with any request for issuance of such temporary orders, which plan shall be served with any such temporary orders. If the parent who has not filed a temporary parenting plan disputes the allocation of parenting responsibilities, residency, parenting time or other matters included in the proposed temporary parenting plan, that parent shall file and serve a responsive proposed temporary parenting plan. (2000 House Substitute for Senate Bill 150, New Section 26.)

If the court deems it appropriate, a temporary parenting plan approved by the court may include one or more of the following provisions regarding children involved in the matter before the court:

Designation of temporary legal custody of the child(ren):

Designation of a temporary residence for the child(ren):

Allocation of parental rights and responsibilities regarding matters pertaining to each child's health, education and welfare:

Schedule for the child's time with each parent, when appropriate:

Additional issues which the court enters into this temporary parenting plan:

Permanent Parenting Plan

Permanent Parenting Plan Defined. Pursuant to 200 House Substitute for Senate Bill 150 New Section 25(b), a permanent parenting plan means an agreement between parents which is incorporated into an order at a final hearing or an order or decree issued at a final hearing without agreement that establishes legal custody, residency, parenting time and other matters regarding a child custody arrangement in a matter in which a parenting plan may be entered.

The objectives of this parenting plan are to:

- (1) establish a proper allocation of parental rights and responsibilities;
- (2) establish an appropriate working relationship between the parents such that matters regarding the health, education and welfare of their child is best determined;
- (3) provide for the child's physical care;
- (4) set forth an appropriate schedule of parenting time;
- (5) maintain the child's emotional stability;
- (6) provide for the child's changing needs as the child grows and matures in a way that minimizes the need for future modifications to the permanent parenting plan;
- (7) minimize the child's exposure to harmful parental conflict;
- (8) encourage the parents, where appropriate, to meet their responsibilities to their minor children through agreements in the permanent parenting plan, rather than by relying on judicial intervention; and
- (9) otherwise protect the best interests of the child.

The court issues the following permanent parenting plan which includes all of the following provisions regarding children involved in the matter before the court;

Designation of the legal custodial relationship of the child:

Schedule for the child's time with each parent, when appropriate:

Provision for a procedure by which disputes between the parents may be resolved without need of court intervention:

Further, the court issues the following detailed permanent parenting plan which may included any of the following provisions regarding children involved in the matter before the court:

Residential schedule:

Holiday, birthday and vacation planning:

Weekends, including holidays and school inservice days preceding or following weekends:

Allocation of parental rights and responsibilities regarding matters pertaining to the child's health, education and welfare:

Sharing of and access to information regarding the child:

Relocation of parents:

Telephone access:

Transportation:

Methods for resolving disputes:

Additional issues which the court enters into this permanent parenting plan:

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Judge of the District Court