

Rule 134

NOTICE OF RULING

- (a) General Rule. If the court rules on a motion or other application when an affected party who has appeared in the action is not present — either in person or by the party’s attorney — the court immediately must serve notice of the ruling.
- (b) Exception for Case With Large Number of Parties. The court may modify the notice requirement in subsection (a) — on motion or on its own — in an action involving an unusually large number of parties.
