CLERK OF APPELLATE COURTS

Order Waiving Continuing Legal Education (CLE) Credit Hour Limitation on Prerecorded Programming

Through 2020-RL-033 and 2020-RL-098, in response to novel coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, this court waived the CLE credit hour limitation on prerecorded programming for the 2019-2020 and 2020-2021 CLE compliance periods. This order extends that waiver through the 2021-2022 compliance period.

For the July 1, 2021 to June 30, 2022 compliance period, Supreme Court Rule 807(i) (previously Supreme Court Rule 806[i] [2021 Kan. S. Ct. R. 611]), is modified as follows:

The credit hour limitation on prerecorded programming is waived for the 2021-2022 compliance period. Prerecorded programs must still meet the guidelines required for accreditation. Effective from the date this order is issued until June 30, 2022, provider applications for prerecorded programming over six hours will be considered.

Dated this 7th day of April 2021.
